

EMRlogic Systems Inc. Canada

We are the leading software provider in our field and our products help our clients build professional Optometry/medical practices that provide the superior service to their patients. We are unique as a privately held software company comprised of highly talented staff focused on innovation to provide our clients with excellence in products and services. We are an elite team of talented people who love challenge, opportunity, and have excellent values.

About the opportunity:

This is a full-time permanent position for an experienced and creative application developer. The successful candidate will be responsible for developing new code as well as analyzing and fixing defects. Developer will provide detailed and accurate estimates of development delivery and ensure delivery of solutions is on time. Background in developing UI coding large database applications and system analysis is required.

Qualifications:

Must have 5 years experience in developing and trouble-shooting complex database applications
Expert knowledge Microsoft Development Tools and C++ coding experience
Working knowledge of ODBC, XML, .NET and Crystal Reports are definite assets
Broad experience with client/server database technology such as SQL Server and Cache`
Knowledge of Healthcare domain will be a big asset

If you fit the requirements we are interested to meet you

Please send your resume and salary requirements to:
careers@emrlogic.com

No phone calls or faxes please
Only short-listed candidates will be contacted
EMRLOGIC INC. is an EOE
Thank you in advance for a submission
Learn More at: www.emrlogic.com